Stock Exchange in Mexico City is Ordered Closed GALVESTON, Tex., Nov. 22.—The stock exchange in Mexico City has been closed by order of the government, according to a cablegram reaching the Mexican consulate here today. The action was taken, the message says, because the exchange of late has devoted its operations to the promotion of fictitious fluctuations in value of national currency. Another order just issued by the government calls for strict compliance under severe penalty with the national law which requires that all prices and values be fixed in national money terms, with the peso as the basis. Prices for food and clothing in the capital are much lower than for many months, the message says. The entire cotton crop in the states of Durango and Coahuila has been taken over by the government at current prices and will be distributed among the cotton mills in the states of Puebla and Vera Cruz, so as to prevent the storing of the crop for speculation and give employment to thousands.

Jacob A. Wandlind of 642 North Thirty-seventh street brought in a mammoth specimen of a parsnip he raised on his truck farm. The parsnip measures three feet and two inches and weighs nearly four pounds. He said he had larger parsnips, some measuring over four feet long. Mr. Wandlind said the season had been the best he ever knew for parsnips. This season's crop was raised from seed gathered on his farm last year.

ANTON ADLER FALLS INTO GOVERNMENT'S HANDS

Anton Adler was arrested by the federal authorities on information secured by Secret Service Agent Hugh Mills. He is charged with swearing that he owned certain property and that it was free of encumbrance, it being alleged that he made these statements in order to sign bonds for prisoners in the police court and federal prisoners. Lots 5 and 3, Frederick addition, and lot 11, block 6, Sulphur Springs addition, are alleged to be the property to which he swore he had title and it is declared he has no title at all to these. Adler admits, says Mills, that he has no title to the property and never had. Adler is a bartender for Henry Pollack.

LOSES JEWELRY ON A FAST TRAIN

Woman Says Fifteen Hundred Dollars Stolen from Pullman Apartment.

ENTIRE TRAIN IS SEARCHED

Mrs. Jane McClurg Hamilton of Chicago, superintendent of the women's department of the fine arts building at the San Francisco fair, went west over the Northwestern-Union Pacific on train No. 17 Saturday morning and some time Sunday or Sunday night she was robbed of $1,500 worth of jewelry and silver between Cheyenne and Green River, Wyo. At the time the robbery was committed she was on the Union Pacific train No. 67 and as a consequence the entire west service force of the company is working on the case. According to the report to the Union Pacific offices here Mrs. Hamilton was on her return to San Francisco from a visit at her home in Chicago. She had the jewelry, jewelry and silverware in a case that with the contents, weighed about seventy-five pounds. When some distance west of Cheyenne Sunday she went to the women's dressing room, leaving the case in her compartment of the sleeper. Upon her return it and the valuables were gone. The trainmen were notified and the sleeper searched, after which the members of the train crew searched the diner and all of the other cars, closely questioning train employes and some of the passengers. The search of the train was without results and parties in the car in which Mrs. Hamilton rode did not remember seeing anyone in her compartment while she was in the dressing room. In the report sent to headquarters the articles in the jewel case are enumerated. Diamonds, gold jewelry and plate, both gold and silver, is described. Officials here are at a loss to understand how so large an amount of jewelry could have been taken out of the compartment without the parties taking it having been noticed. The train on which Mrs. Hamilton rode is one of the best on the Union Pacific and generally its passengers are supposed to be of the best class.

Henry Kieser Has Letter from Sunday On Selling Cards

Henry F. Kieser, who managed the book store at the Tabernacle, is still on corresponding terms with Rev. William Ashley Sunday. In the last of a series of epistolary expressions from the evangelist Mr. Kieser is advised to post up on the federal laws with reference to the sale of postal photographs and other matter at Syracuse. "Billy" serves notice he will give "Henry" a reasonable time in which to discontinue the sale of his cards and books at Syracuse, and if Mr. Kieser declines to stop such sale he (Sunday) will invoke the federal law. Mr. Kieser contends that he is quite within the law and is willing to let Mr. Sunday take the initiative if he thinks he has a case. Large orders of Sunday photo cards has just been received at Syracuse from the Forward Publishing company, in which Mr. Kieser is interested. "I want to reiterate that I did not tell Mrs. Sunday or any of the Sunday party to go to brass, as was stated in a newspaper article. I would not tell any lady to go to brass," stated Mr. Kieser.

Local Grain Stocks Show Small Gain

The week starts off with the grain stocks in storage in Omaha elevators slightly greater than a week ago. The principal increase is in wheat. Stocks now and on the corresponding date one year ago:

	Now	Year Ago
Wheat	822,000	1,114,000
Corn	17,800	122,000
Oats	852,000	2,273,000
Rye	28,000	19,000
Barley	28,000	13,000
Totals	1,960,000	3,547,000

Decrease—1,587,000 bushels. While stocks of wheat and corn are approximately the same as last year, oats on hand are much less. Daily receipts of oats are very fair and are running well along with the receipts at this date one year ago, but recently the export demand has developed into immense proportions and this, added to the quantities going south for feed, keeps the elevators pretty well cleaned out. Omaha grain receipts were just fair for a Monday, there being 131 cars of wheat; 29 corn and 56 oats. Prices were strong to some higher than last Saturday. Wheat sold at 87 cents to $1 per bushels; corn, 62 to 64 cents; and oats, 22 to 23 cents. There were two cars of new corn received, it selling at 57 cents per bushel.

HOT LUNCH WILL SOON BE READY AT TRAIN SCHOOL

Plans for the hot lunch service to be instituted at the Train school December 1 by the Omaha Woman's club are rapidly being completed. Hot soup, bread and crackers will be served for 1 cent, the teachers of the school taking charge of the serving. Mrs. N. H. Nelson, president of the club, is chairman of the working committee and will be assisted by Mrs. F. J. Burnett, head of the home economics department, and Mrs. E. M. Siefert, vice president. The advisory committee includes Mrs. F. H. Cole, Mrs. Edward Palmer, Miss Eunice Ennor, Mrs. F. W. Carmichael and Mrs. H. C. Sweeney.

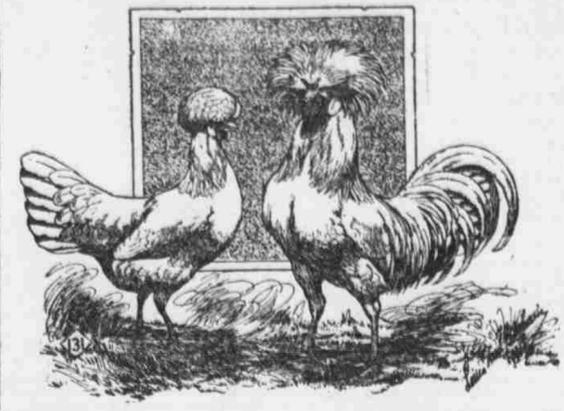

FINED FOR SEEKING TO COLLECT UNJUST DAMAGES

Railroad officials here have received word that in federal court at Milwaukee last Saturday the Wisconsin Auto Sales company was fined $200 and its sales agent, O. C. Collins, $200. The company had shipped an automobile body over the Milwaukee road. In transit it was damaged, the automobile company claiming $100. Prof. showed that the damages were but $15, hence the fine for seeking to collect damages that did not exist.

FEDERAL JURY TAKES UP SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD

Jury work was resumed in federal court with the trial of the suit of Elizabeth McCoy against the Missouri Pacific railroad for $25,000 damages for the death of her son, Charles F. McCoy, a car inspector. It is alleged that a string of cars was "kicked in" on a siding and struck a car in which McCoy was standing while engaged in his work, knocking him off and running over him.

Second Annual Poultry Show to Begin Wednesday at Auditorium

Mrs. Hen and her husband, Chanticleer, will have a big time in the Omaha Auditorium this week, beginning Wednesday and lasting until Saturday. It will be the second annual show of the Greater Omaha Poultry Fanciers' association, bigger and better than ever. The hen has been held up to public admiration as an example of industry, thriftiness and wealth productivity and the annual value of her product runs away up into many millions. She has also been commended for her advertising ability. She doesn't believe in laying a perfectly good egg for the delectation of man, but she believes that a good thing worth doing is worth talking about. So after, in the quietness of her nest, she has brought forth an egg, she straightway hurries forth to the barnyard and spends five or ten minutes in proclaiming to the world her good deed, ably assisted by her husband. The well-known result of this wisdom and business sense, as set forth by the ad men of the country, is that all the world loves hen's eggs while the eggs of the duck, a non-advertiser, are but a negligible quantity, both in commerce and in excellence. And so the well set in chickendom are being groomed for the annual show, being provided with handsome and comfortable coops, furnished with clean straw and water bowls. The symphony of the Boston Symphony orchestra and of Madame Gadsak will give way to the sweet song of Biddy and her brave husband, Chanticleer. Let none fear that the sun will not rise while Chanticleer is at the show. He can summon the orb of day and will summon it from the Auditorium, even as he does from the barnyard. Brave Chanticleer will not leave the world in darkness simply because he is being admired. He will not forget his important duty. All the different varieties will be there—the fair White Leghorns, the sturdy Buff Cochins, the Barred, White, brown and Black Plymouth Rocks, the scrappy Indian game and the pompous little bantams, together with many others too numerous to mention. The 15,000 square feet of space in the Auditorium will be filled. Nine silver cups are to be awarded, besides over 100 special prizes.

ENGRAVING MATERIALS SOAR

Prices Advance on All Substances Used in the Making of Cuts and Photos.

EXPECT ANOTHER ADVANCE

The four Nebraskans who attended the conference of manufacturing photographers in Chicago last week have returned to Omaha and Lincoln with a keener insight as to the high cost of some of the materials they are using in their respective plants. Prices are shooting skyward, they say, because of the fact that so much of the zinc, copper, bromide, nitric acid and other materials used by the trade are being shipped to Europe to supply the munition factories. N. J. Baker and E. S. Parker, both of the Baker Bros. plant at Omaha; George R. Wright of The Bee engraving department and C. D. Traphagen of the Lincoln State Journal were the Nebraskans who attended the conference.

May Be Another Advance.

Another advance in materials is threatened, although one big advance has already been made. Dr. Herman Bodenheid of New York at the conference said that the engravers are paying from 50 to 1,000 per cent more for materials than in the past, with no prospect for relief. Dr. Bodenheid, who is consulting chemist of the International Association of Manufacturing Photo-Engravers, continued: "Not only are we unable to get the chemicals manufactured heretofore in Germany, but we can't even lay our hands on enough of the products made in the United States, which are now being used in the manufacture of explosives."

CITY HELP MUST PAY THEIR BILLS

Commissioners Object to the City Being Used as a Debt Collecting Agency.

MUST CHANGE THEIR HABITS

The city commissioners intend to call a halt on the city being made a collection agency by persons having claims against employes. Employes drawing salaries every month or week and who are unreasonably negligent in payment of bills, will be told to adopt some other system of living or resign from the municipal service. The commissioners held an extended executive conference on the subject in Commissioner Hummel's office. "I can tell you things that will make you sit up and take notice," remarked Commissioner Kugel, just before the commissioners retired from the committee of the whole meeting. "I am holding various claims and judgments against city employes," was a comment by Commissioner Butler. The matter took definite form two weeks ago when the city council received in open meeting a judgment rendered in a justice court against a policeman, the claimant being a Cuming street grocer. Commissioner Kugel stated that this particular policeman was drawing $100 every month and his wife is an operator at the telephone exchange on Douglas street. Because of the personal nature of this matter the commissioners do not want to reveal the names of the employes involved, but it is announced that drastic measures will be adopted in the future against employes who ignore their just bills for groceries, meat, coal and clothing.

Holds Many Claims.

The city attorney has been directed to prepare a resolution directing the superintendents of the fire and police departments to prefer charges against any and all employes who neglect to pay their debts within a reasonable time and without reasonable cause.

Holdup Gets Small Sum from Mrs. Dart

OMAHA BOY IS EATING STRAWBERRIES IN ARGENTINE

Writing from Buenos Ayres, Argentine republic, to Nathan Bernstein, under date of October 24, Fred R. Larson, former Omaha boy, says: "Summer will soon be at hand to greet us with flowers and luscious strawberries." And this is true because Argentine, lying south of the equator, has its seasons just the reverse of the seasons here. He speaks of the splendid botanical gardens, where are displayed in separate plots the vegetation peculiar to each country of South America.

Hair Curling Troubles Are Over—Read This!

Girls, have you heard about the newest way to curl the hair? If you have not, by all means cut out these simple directions and try this wonderful method tonight before you go to bed. Just procure a few teeth and a few ounces of plain liquid salicylate from your druggist; apply enough of the liquid with the teeth to moisten the hair from root to tip. Tomorrow morning you will be quite astonished when you find that your hair has dried in such lovely waves and curls that appear altogether natural, instead of having been artificially acquired. Your hair will be softer, more "body" and fluffiness where the drying, singeing waving iron is used. It will appear glossier and livelier, for salicylate has proved equally desirable as a dressing for the hair. You'll find it pleasant to use, and it will leave no sticky, greasy or streaky trace.—Advertisement.

Finger Replaced by Doctor After Being Chopped Off

J. J. Mack's finger, accidentally chopped off and immediately replaced, will grow again in its proper position, according to Police Surgeon Charles F. Shook, who treated Mack. Mack, who lives at 2502 Poppleton avenue, is a butcher employed by the Italian Mercantile company. While chopping meat he cut off the finger. The injured man's fellow workmen put the finger back in place, wrapped it tight bandage around it and took him to the police station. Dr. Shook left the finger in place when he treated the injury. "I believe the wound will heal and Mack will be able to use his finger again," he said.
